MICHAEL E. RUDMAN, MD, AND RICHARD P. WINNE JR., MD

Dedicated to helping those suffering from acute or chronic pain, Dr. Rudman and Dr. Winne work every day to improve their patients' quality of life. Together with physician associate Dr. Terrence Welsh and nurse practitioners Megan Filoramo and Jeannine Dannenbaum, the team at New Jersey Pain Consultants provides comprehensive, individualized care.

Patients benefit from safe, minimally invasive treatment and innovative technology, as well as rehabilitation services and emotional support, all under one roof. "From the moment patients walk through our doors, every part of the process is designed to address their individual needs," says Dr. Rudman.

Board certified in anesthesiology and pain management, Dr. Rudman is medical director of Morristown Medical Center's pain management division and an annual recipient of New Jersey Monthly's Top Doctor honor. He specializes in treating the full range of back and neck pain. Dr. Winne, a partner in the practice with Dr. Rudman since 1994, is also board certified in anesthesiology and pain management. Selected multiple times as a New Jersey Monthly Top Doctor, he focuses on back pain, nerve pain and complex regional pain syndrome (RSD).

Drs. Rudman and Winne use the latest tools and technologies, including radiofrequency ablation, steroidal injections and spinal cord stimulation, and work collaboratively with a network of specialists to achieve optimal outcomes.

HOSPITAL AFFILIATIONS: Morristown Medical Center; Franklin Surgical Center, Basking Ridge. MEDICAL TRAINING: Dr. Rudman: Pennsylvania State University School of Medicine (MD); University of Pennsylvania Hospital (residency, fellowship). Dr. Winne: UMDNJ (MD); Thomas Jefferson University Medical Center (residency); Medical College of Wisconsin (fellowship).
